

Feminist Economics Workshop: Special issue on gender and international migration.

Friday 11th March

9-9.30: Welcome and introduction: Lourdes Beneria, Carmen Diana Deere and Naila Kabeer

9.30-11.00

Session 1: Re-thinking labour market discrimination in the light of international migration (I). Lourdes Beneria, moderator

1. Coral Del-Rio and Olga Alonso-Villar ‘Occupational segregation of immigrant women in Spain’
Discussants:
 - a. Sara de la Rica
 - b. Anton/de Bustillo/Carrera team member

2. Smriti Rao and Christina Presenti: ‘Understanding human trafficking origin: a cross country empirical analysis’
Discussants:
 - a. Delali Badasu
 - b. Sara de la Rica

11.00 – 11.15 Break

11.15-12.45

Session 2: Re-thinking labour market discrimination in the light of international migration (II). Carmen Diana Deere, moderator

3. Marie Valenteva and Aigul Alieva ‘Gender Differences in Attitudes towards Immigrants in Luxembourg’
Discussants:
 - a. Vinca Bigo
 - b. Anton/de Bustillo/Carrera team member

4. José-Ignacio Anton, Rafael Munoz De Bustillo and Miguel Carrera ‘Raining Stones? Female immigrants in the Spanish labor market’
Discussants:
 - a. Coral Del Rio or Olga Alonso
 - b. Carlos Vargas-Silva

12:45-2:00 Lunch

2 – 3:30

Session 3: The globalisation of social reproduction and the emergence of trans-national families (I) Naila Kabeer, moderator

5. Wendy Harcourt and Vinca Bigo ‘The new global care order: the role of absent mothers and present fathers in changing gender norms’
Discussants:
 - a. Kyoko Kusakabe
 - b. Delali Badasu

6. Gioconda Herrera ‘Coping with the crisis: gender and strategies of social reproduction among Ecuadorian migrant families’
Discussants:
 - a. Amaia Pérez
 - b. Marcella Cerruti

3.30-3.45 Break

3:45- 5.15

Session 4: The globalisation of social reproduction and the emergence of trans-national families (I) Lourdes Beneria

7. Ruth Pearson and Kyoko Kusakabe ‘Who cares? Gender, social reproduction and care chains of Burmese migrant workers in Thailand’
Discussants:
 - a. Wendy Harcourt
 - b. Stuart Rosewarne

8. Hyonuk Lee ‘The political economy of cross-border marriage: economic development and social reproduction in South Korea’
Discussants:
 - a. Nicola Piper
 - b. Gioconda Herrera

Saturday 12th March

9-10:30

Session 5: Gender and remittances Carmen Diana Deere, moderator

9. Elke Holst, Andrea Schäfer and Mechthild Schrooten ‘Gender, transnational networks and remittances: evidence from Germany’
Discussants:
 - a. Gunseli Berik
 - b. Marie Valentova or Aigul Alieva

10. Carlos Vargas-Silva and George Naufal ‘Gender, remittances and household reproduction’

Discussants:

- a. Alison Vasconez
- b. Holst/ Schäfer/Schrooten team member

10.30-10.45 Break

10:45- 1.00

6) Governance, gender and migration: Naila Kabeer, moderator

11. Tanya Basok and Nicola Piper ‘Regulation versus rights: migration of women and global governance organisations in Latin America and the Carribean’

Discussants:

- a. Marcela Cerutti
- b. Simel Esim

12. Candace Howe ‘Transnational care workers: why we need a low wage movement’

Discussants:

- a. Diana Strassman
- b. Valerie Francisco

13. Simel Esim and Mansour Omeira ‘The Care, Migration and Employment Nexus in Arab Countries’

Discussants:

- a. Candace Howe
- b. Zo Randriamaro

1.00-2,15 Lunch

2.15 – 4:30

7) Migration, development and redistribution: Lourdes Beneria, moderator

14. Marta Pérez ‘Emergency frames: migration, gender violence and humanitarianism in Spain’

Discussants:

- a. Aly Tandian
- b. Sonia Parella

15. Stuart Rosewarne ‘The feminisation of international labour migration and the ‘migration-development’ nexus: engendering responsibility for development?’

Discussants:

- a. Aly Tandian
- b. Sonia Parella

16. Meryl Altman and Kerry Pannell ‘Policy gaps and theory gaps: migrant domestic labor’

Discussants

- a. Amaia Pérez
- b. Zo Randriamaro

4.30-4,45 Break

4.45- 6:00 Wrap up, Carmen Diana Deere, Lourdes Beneria and Naila Kabeer